Blessed Easter Water

Holy Water Signifies Renewal

Holy Water is one of the main symbols of the Easter Season, and a familiar element of liturgies and of receiving the Sacraments. By definition, Holy Water is water blessed by a priest.

Throughout our lives, we have dipped our fingers in Holy Water and made the sign of the cross when coming into church, symbolizing the renewal of our baptism.

We have been sprinkled with Holy Water during Mass, we have watched as it is poured on the heads of babies in baptism, and we have seen it used in the blessing of people, objects and places.

Holy Water is a ‘sacramental,’ meaning it is one of the sacred signs instituted by the Church that are related to one of the Holy Sacraments. Examples of other sacramentals are palms, ashes and candles.

Holy Water has always been seen as a sign of protection against evil. Also, it is a sign of life. Without water, a person dies. Likewise, in the renewing waters of baptism, we are given new life.

In the Easter Season, Holy Water is blessed at the Easter Vigil on Saturday night before Easter Sunday. Some of this “Easter Water” is distributed to the faithful for use in their homes. [Sourcebook]

Parish Community Group

The community group will be holding their first meeting for 2024 on Tuesday 16 April at 7:30pm. We are looking for any parishioners who may wish to join our group, you would be most welcome. We organise the morning teas, soup nights etc, being a member of the group is not arduous, we do have laughs and friendship along the way. If you are interested and would like to know more, please contact Marie on 9372 0307. Thank you.

Project Compassion

With the conclusion of Lent, please bring Project Compassion boxes to the sacristy or the Presbytery. Thank you for your generosity!

Vocations

Next Sunday we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday – the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. During this coming week, perhaps you may like to make a prayer each day for more vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life. Perhaps there is a young person you may know to pray for by name this week. Yohan Wickramasekara, seminarian for the Archdiocese of Hobart, will give a Reflection at our Sunday Masses.

Baptisms

We welcome into the family of God's Church the children to be baptised in our parish this weekend.

3rd Sunday of Easter

FIRST READING

Acts 3:13-15,17-19

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter said to the people: 'You are Israelites, and it is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, who has glorified his servant Jesus, the same Jesus you handed over and then disowned in the presence of Pilate after Pilate had decided to release him. It was you who accused the Holy One, the Just One, you who demanded the reprieve of a murderer while you killed the prince of life. God, however, raised him from the dead, and to that fact we are the witnesses.

'Now I know, brothers, that neither you nor your leaders had any idea what you were really doing; this was the way God carried out what he had foretold, when he said through all his prophets that his Christ would suffer. Now you must repent and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out.'

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 4

R. Lord, let your face shine on us.

When I call, answer me, O God of justice;
from anguish you released me, have mercy and hear me! (R.)

It is the Lord who grants favours to those whom he loves; the Lord hears me whenever I call him. (R.)

'What can bring us happiness?' many say.
Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord. (R.)

I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once,
for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety. (R.)

SECOND READING

1 John 2:1-5

I am writing this, my children,
to stop you sinning;
but if anyone should sin,
we have our advocate with the Father,
Jesus Christ, who is just;
he is the sacrifice that takes our sins away,
and not only ours,
but the whole world's.
We can be sure that we know God
only by keeping his commandments.
Anyone who says, 'I know him',
and does not keep his commandments,
is a liar,
refusing to admit the truth.
But when anyone does obey what he has said,

God's love comes to perfection in him.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

cf Luke 24:32

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord Jesus, make your word plain to us:
make our hearts burn with love when you speak.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Luke 24:35-48

The disciples told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised Jesus at the breaking of bread.

They were still talking about all this when Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you!' In a state of alarm and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost. But he said, 'Why are you so agitated, and why are these doubts rising in your hearts? Look at my hands and feet; yes, it is I indeed. Touch me and see for yourselves; a ghost has no flesh and bones as you can see I have.' And as he said this he showed them his hands and feet. Their joy was so great that they still could not believe it, and they stood there dumbfounded; so he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' And they offered him a piece of grilled fish, which he took and ate before their eyes.

Then he told them, 'This is what I meant when I said, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets and in the Psalms has to be fulfilled.' He then opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'So you see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
